Pope Sides With Liberals

Conservatives Are Overruled

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI has acted in favor of progressives at the Vatican Ecumenical Council in a critical struggle with conservatives, an official source said today.

The source — Dr. Gaston Cruzat, head of the press office of the Latin-American Episcopate (Celam) — said the Pope had overruled conservative attempts to water down or block council action on the Jews, religious liberty, shared papal-episcopal power and modern world problems such as birth control.

Fifteen prominent cardinals, all progressive, petitioned the Pope on Sunday to intervene in what the Celam press office called "the gravest crisis since the council started."

The progressives complained that leading conservatives: —Were seeking to have a draft declaration on the Jews reduced to a single paragraph. —Were trying to transfer the revision of a draft declaration on religious liberty from the largely progressive Christian unity secretariat to a special committee of mostly conservative cardinals. —Were moving to change a text on shared papal-episcopal power by deleting the word "full" from a reference that Bishops had such "full and supreme power."

—Were attempting to put off debate on the much awaited schema in the Roman Catholic Church in the modern world.

On all four points, Cruzat said, the Pope agreed with the progressive view point that there should be no deviations from the course followed so far by the council and its commissions.

New Copter Unit Set Up In Delta

CAO LANH, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. Army has set up a third helicopter company in the largely Viet Cong-controlled Mekong River delta region in hopes of cutting a number of disastrous ambushes against government ground forces.

However, a recent operation on the edge of the Plain of Reeds showed that it may take more than added helicopters to gain the initiative for government forces in the delta rice bowl.

Units from the new company and an older unit took part in a flight to lift 60 government troops into an area 80 miles southwest of Saigon.

Government forces hit ground only 30 minutes after 300 Viet Cong were spotted in the area. While helicopters provided air support, troops jumped out to find themselves in near-neck deep water. Reeds were well over their heads. Although there was sporadic shooting, neither force saw the other and the helicopters were unable to pinpoint enemy units which escaped. The delta region is only dry about four months out of a year.

LBJ Rips Klan, Birchers

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, elated over the results of his first full-scale campaign trip, says he will maintain a torrid pace until the Nov. 3 election.

It's not that Johnson fears defeat. But he makes clear he doesn't want to leave anything to chance — and big crowds prove a powerful lure for him.

The President returned to Washington early today from Boise, Idaho, last stop on a six-day, 10,000-mile campaign trip through 15 states from shore to shore.

He will be hitting the trail again Wednesday for two days in New Jersey, Pennsylvania

U.S. Officer Is Freed by Red Terrorists

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Communist terrorists released U.S. Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Smolen unharmed Monday night after two of the five-man gang that abducted him Friday were arrested.

Smolen, blindfolded, was put out of a car about 11 p.m. on a street corner in Caracas.

A passing motorist spotted him almost immediately and took him to a police station. He arrived at the embassy early today, said he felt fine and reported he had been treated well.

Interior Minister Gonzalo Barrios said the two terrorists seized in a downtown Caracas apartment early Monday were Spanish-born members of the Red underground called the Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN).

Reliable sources said nine other suspected terrorists were picked up later.

Smolen told newsmen his abductors said they kidnapped him to make propaganda for their underground war against Venezuela's democratic government.

The 45-year-old officer from Chandler, Ariz., said his abductors never mentioned any plan to trade him for political prisoners in Venezuela or for a condemned Communist Viet Cong terrorist in South Viet Nam. Various anonymous telephone callers had reported such proposals.

South Viet Nam police sources reported that the execution of the terrorist mentioned in connection with the Smolen abduction, Nguyen Van Troi, 19, still was scheduled for Thursday.

Smolen was the second American officer to be abducted and then released unharmed by Red terrorists. Last November, U.S. Army Col. James Cheneault was held for eight days. U.S. Charge D'Aulaires John Hill said Smolen's captivity apparently was shorter because the police were closing in.

Smolen talked with newsmen after a reunion at the embassy with his wife, Marian, of Rockford, Ill. He was kidnapped on the way to work after having

Cincy, Dayton Awaiting LBJ

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — President Johnson will bring his campaign into Ohio again Friday with stops scheduled at Cincinnati and Dayton.

State Democratic chairman William L. Coleman announced Monday that Johnson will bypass Columbus, where former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will speak Thursday, on his second campaign trip into the Buckeye State.

Coleman said the tentative schedule for Friday calls for Johnson to arrive at the airport in Cincinnati about 5 p.m., deliver a speech there, and then travel by motorcade for another address in Cincinnati's downtown Fountain Square.

The President will then fly to Dayton for a speech about 8 p.m., Coleman said.

Panel To Study Plans Giving Lawyer to Poor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren has appointed a committee of judges to develop plans for providing lawyers for persons too poor to obtain an adequate defense in criminal cases in federal courts.

Such aid to defendants is called for in the Criminal Justice Act of 1964, recently enacted by Congress.

Profit-Sharing Plan at Stake

American Motors Parleys with Union

DETROIT (AP) — Negotiations between American Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union came down to one simple question today: Does the sole profit-sharing contract in the automotive industry survive or does it die?

Working against a Thursday midnight strike deadline, the company said, in effect, let it die. The union, on the other hand, said let's keep it alive.

This, however, was not the only trouble spot in the automotive industry.

General Motors Corp., kingpin of the automakers, still was strikebound. Only 45 of 130 at-plant settlements required to supplement the previously negotiated national contract had been reached. That left 85 to go.

Ford, which also had agreed on a national contract and had settled on most at-plant supplements with the UAW, got a strike call from an unexpected source, the Pattern Makers League of North America (AFL-CIO).

Both company and pattern-maker sources agreed that a prolonged strike by this tiny union — with a membership of less than 700 within Ford's 160,000 hourly rated employees — could take Ford out of 1965 model production.

Wages, seniority and job security, above levels of the Ford-UAW contract, were at issue.

There appeared little chance the Sept. 25th GM walkout would be ended before next week. All told, the GM strike has idled almost 300,000 of the company's 350,000 UAW-represented hourly employees.

Stalemate continued on the American Motors front. The company said the union was asking the same settlement it reached with the Big Three, plus profit sharing.

Debbie, Liz Visit — Not About Eddie

LONDON (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor and Debbie Reynolds — former wives of Eddie Fisher — sailed the Atlantic together and said they never mentioned the name of their former spouse.

"It just didn't come up," said Debbie today. "If you don't forget what's in the past, how can you look forward to the future?"

After the death of Miss Taylor's third husband, Michael Todd, Fisher left Debbie and became Liz's fourth husband. Debbie married American shoe magnate Harry Karl.

After Liz divorced Eddie, she married British actor Richard Burton.

Last week the Burtons and the Karls sailed to Europe on the Queen Mary.

"I sent a note to the Burtons inviting them to join us for cocktails," said Debbie. "And do you know what? The Burtons had the very same idea. The stewards actually crossed in the corridors with our notes."

After cocktails, the couples dined together. On the last night aboard they had dinner together again and didn't part until near dawn.

The Burtons got off in Cherbourg, to make a movie in Paris. The Karls came to England.

Gotham Tightens Guard for LBJ

NEW YORK (AP) — Security measures for President Johnson's visit to the city Wednesday and Thursday are so tight that uniformed policemen assigned to watch the crowds are under orders not to turn for a moment to salute the President as his motorcade passes.

Several thousand uniformed men and detectives are assigned to protect the President under orders issued by Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy.

Johnson will address the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation dinner Wednesday night and a political rally at Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

Football Tickets Saved Hard Way

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Claude Morris goes a long way to save his football tickets — even to the state crime laboratory.

When fire destroyed the Duncan Manufacturing and Equipment Co. last week, where Morris is manager, it also destroyed 20 tickets and badly charred 20 others to this weekend's Auburn-Georgia Tech game in Birmingham.

Morris sent the 20 charred bits to the state toxicologist.

Tests were used to determine the seat numbers and today the city is preparing duplicate tickets for Morris.

3 Soviet Astronauts End 16-Orbit Journey

Once Around Roundtown

POLICE CHIEF Robert Temple enjoyed the company of a special visitor yesterday.

Visiting with the chief for about three hours was a constable, or policeman as we know the term, from Canada. The Canadian officer hails from a community near Windsor in Ontario.

The constable viewed equipment and police methods as used in this country. He is part of a Canadian contingent of 72 officers touring police departments in the United States.

According to Chief Temple, the visitor commented that he wished his department's equipment and gear was on a par with that found in many U. S. cities.

Young Asks Report on Taft Wealth

CLEVELAND (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young says Republican Rep. Robert Taft Jr. should make public his personal wealth and a list of his law firm's clients.

Young said Taft, trying for his senatorial seat, has injected the "so-called 'Bobby Baker question' into the campaign." The incumbent said he voted to investigate Bobby Baker.

"I was the first member of Congress to make a full disclosure of all financial holdings," Young said. "I closed my law firm when I went to the Senate. I sold stock in aircraft companies when I went on the Space Committee."

"If Junior wants to discuss Bobby Baker, let him tell the voters of Ohio how much money he received from Taft, Stettinius and Hollister (Taft's law firm)."

"I made my 1963 income tax return public. Let junior do the same."

Ohio Teacher In Hassle

LA GRANGE, Ky. (AP) — Corrections Commissioner Joseph G. Cannon has refused to go along with the dismissal of a vocational teacher at the La Grange Reformatory.

Warden David L. Davis said Monday he released Henry Burns Jr., of Lebanon, Ohio, on Oct. 6 because of the teacher's "disrespectful, disloyal and unnecessary remarks" about the warden and Gov. Edward T. Beahm.

Davis did not elaborate but Cannon, a former Ohio prison official, said Monday night Burns' remarks did not warrant dismissal. Cannon said Burns will remain on the reformatory payroll until Nov. 1, but would work mostly in the department's central office at Frankfort.

Episcopalians Accuse Goldwater Of 'Exploitation of Racism'

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — More than 700 Episcopalians, including 10 bishops, today accused the Republican presidential candidate and his running mate of a "transparent exploitation of racism among white citizens."

The statement was issued here concurrent with the triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

It accused Sen. Barry Goldwater, the GOP nominee, and the party's vice presidential candidate, U.S. Rep. William E. Miller, of "manipulation of racism among white citizens."

SOVIETS' THREE-MAN SPACE TEAM — These are the astronaut and his two passengers shot into Earth orbit by the Soviet Union's first multi-manned space ship. They are (from left) Vladimir M. Komarov, commander; Konstantin Feoktistov, scientist, and Boris Yegorov, a doctor.

U.S. Spacemen 2 Years Behind

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. space agency — never really ahead in the race to the moon — has new clues to just how far behind it is. It may trail the Russians by some two years.

The Soviets pointed this out Monday by launching a big new satellite called Sunrise with a big new space rocket — and complicated things by not saying how big either of them were.

They did say, however, that Sunrise carried three men — a pilot, a doctor and a scientist — in a shirt-sleeve environment, unencumbered by bulky space suits.

It will be some two years before the U.S. space program duplicates the feat — but the U.S. effort is not designed along parallel lines with the Soviet schedule.

Early next year, the U.S. schedule calls for the first of 10 two-man Gemini flights, culminating in two-week missions for some astronaut teams, and two-day missions for others in which the goal will be rendezvous, docking and maneuver with other space bodies.

Early this year, it seemed that the United States was catching up with the Soviet Union at least. The Soviets had been using rockets with the power of some 800,000 pounds of thrust to put into earth orbits spacecraft weighing about 15,000 pounds.

Then in January, the United States fired off Saturn I — with 1.5 million pounds of thrust. It put a dummy satellite weighing better than 37,000 pounds into orbit, the world's greatest known weightlifting feat until then, perhaps even now.

That was when Wernher von Braun, who heads Saturn development, said: "We are now ahead of the Russians in cargo-carrying ability."

The entire Saturn program has a long-range goal — the Saturn 5. This monster will develop 7.5 million pounds of thrust and is scheduled to hurl a three-man Apollo spaceship

Dayton GOP Solon Rushed To Hospital

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's 3rd District Congressman, Rep. Paul F. Schenck, was rushed to Miami Valley Hospital today after apparently suffering an asthma attack at his home here.

The hospital initially listed his condition as poor and said a thorough examination was being made. He was said to be showing improvement.

Schenck, who is 65, was born in Miamisburg, which also is in Montgomery County, and moved to Dayton in 1908. He graduated from Steele High School in 1917 and had two years of college.

He taught for eight years and was Dayton's city recreation director for six. In 1935, he founded a real estate, mortgage loan and insurance business now operated by one of his two sons. Schenck also has five grandsons.

He was elected to Congress 13 years ago to fill the vacancy created by resignation of Edward Breen, and re-elected six times.

Controversial Bomber Is Given Added Tests

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Test pilot Al White put the XB70A bomber through its paces here Monday, hitting speeds in excess of 700 miles an hour and an altitude of 35,000 feet. It was the third test for the trouble-plagued controversial ship.

White told newsmen he was sure the 185-foot long bomber will reach its designed maximum altitude of 80,000 feet and top speed of 2,000 m.p.h. Monday's test was the highest and fastest of the three flights.

No Time for Primping

ISLE OF WIGHT, Va. (AP) — The Isle of Wight County School Board decided Monday that proms and dances are a traditional part of high school. But it warned there would be no more half-days off for girls to fix their hair for the big event.

Trio's Capsule Lands Safely

Research Made In Outer Space

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's three-man space ship, the world's first to carry more than one astronaut in orbit, landed safely today after completing 16 trips around the earth in 24 hours and 17 minutes, an official announcement said.

The program of scientific research, designed for 24 hours of flight, was accomplished in full, said the official announcement.

It added that the doctor, scientist and engineer aboard the space ship Voskhod — Sunrise — conducted observations "directly in outer space."

The Soviet news agency Tass said all three men "are feeling well."

U.S. Spacemen 2 Years Behind

The capsule had completed 16 circles of the earth when its commander, Col. Vladimir Komarov, was ordered to switch on braking devices, Tass reported.

Tass emphasized that only a 24-hour flight had been planned, but other indications caused speculation that the trip had ended far short of the originally scheduled time.

At 10:57 a.m. Moscow time, 2:57 a.m. EST, 10 minutes after landing, pilots reported: "The object is visible on the ground, well visible, and the cosmonauts, three, beside it. They are walking about, walking briskly."

Scientists, engineers and cosmonauts at the control post embraced and congratulated each other, Tass said.

The announcement of the space ship's purpose, made after it was launched Monday from a "cosmodrome" 1,250 miles southeast of Moscow, said it would study medical reactions during "a long flight." How long was never stated.

Informed sources had pointed out the highly elliptical orbit of the craft — ranging from 110 to 255 miles above the earth — as indicating it could not stay up too long.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev, in a radio conversation with the three cosmonauts Monday, promised them the boisterous Moscow reception the Soviet capital traditionally gives to space travelers.

"Be ready for the overloading which we'll arrange for you after you come back to earth," the premier said.

The three members of Voskhod's crew, Col. Vladimir Komarov, the pilot; scientist Konstantin Feoktistov, and Dr. Boris Yegorov, were met at the landing spot by "sports commissioners, correspondents and friends," Tass said.

"The program of scientific research, designed for 24 hours of flight, was accomplished in full," Tass said.

"Valuable information was obtained about the flight of a group of cosmonauts consisting of specialists in different fields. For the first time, scientists were able to conduct observations directly in outer space."

"The information obtained as a result of the flight is being tabulated and processed."

The flight fell far short of the previous record of 81 orbits by

LBJ Skips Job -- Barry

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater charged today that President Johnson is neglecting his duties for "full-time politicking" that "turns Sunday into campaign chaos."

The Republican presidential nominee referred to a campaign trip Sunday by Johnson that included a visit to a church in Phoenix, Ariz., Goldwater's hometown.

Goldwater said the President had "visited church after church and city after city in a political travesty of the Lord's day."

After a quick flight here from Phoenix to open a new week of campaigning, the Arizona senator renewed his demands that Johnson agree to a televised debate.

"If the man who now occupies the White House wants to be more of a full-time President between now and election day, there is a way," Goldwater said.

The way, he said, is a nationally televised debate that "could be taped, so as to avoid the possibility of Mr. Johnson making a mistake that might jeopardize national security."

Goldwater said that the issue most damaging to his campaign was "the outright lie that I am trigger happy."

"But I think that is being overcome by just people stopping to think that no man, particularly no American, is ever going to push the button."

In his Topeka speech, Goldwater said, "We face full-time responsibilities around the world, full-scale challenges. But not once do we hear of them from our part-time President."

"He gives us handshakes and handouts. He directs traffic and kisses babies rather than directing our foreign policy. He turns Sunday into a day of campaign chaos and the other days of the week into days of rest — so far as our foreign policy is concerned."

Man Draws Probation For Forgery

A West Virginia man was placed on probation for a three-year period today by Pickaway County Common Pleas Judge William Ammer on charges of forgery.

James Lewis, Charleston, W. Va., was handed the probationary sentence after pleading guilty to the accusation. He was tried on a bill of information.

Three other men were placed on probation Saturday by Judge Ammer after they pleaded guilty to charges as set forth in bills of information. They were:

Robert McManes, Route 1, Stoutsville, three years probation for stealing a motor vehicle; Benjamin A. Nebbergall, Washington C. H., three years probation for grand larceny; and Donald Lee Moore, Washington C. H., three years probation for grand larceny.

A FOURTH man, appearing before the court Saturday, was sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary for a period of 1-20 years. He was Harold Richard French, Route 2, Wellston, who was tried on charges of uttering a forged instrument.

Probation was continued for a Baltimore man who appeared for violating the terms of probationary sentence imposed earlier by the court. He was Rudy W. Sayre.

Reminder Given On Depositing Political Copies

Postal officials here today reminded political candidates that it is contrary to federal regulations to deposit campaign literature in mail boxes other than through regular post office routing.

Postal authorities said several pieces of campaign material, in the form of handbills, were found yesterday in rural boxes. Mailmen have been instructed to return the literature to candidates when this happens.

Postmaster Charles Walters said postal regulations deem it a violation to deposit political and other material in boxes unless it has been properly processed through a post office. The rule is in effect in both urban and rural areas.

As the convention went into its third day, Church representatives heard a Negro flatly denounce violence in the civil rights movement.

He is Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who called such violence both impractical and immoral.

Dr. King, a Negro, made an unscheduled appearance Monday before the House of Delegates of the 61st general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

"If the Negro uses violence, the future will be endless panorama of chaos," he said.

But a white sociologist said there may be a reason for the violence.

"The poverty revolution is upon us and is crying out for intelligent direction," said Dr. Charles V. Willie, associate professor of sociology and anthropology at Syracuse University. He spoke to the meeting of the Women of the Episcopal Church.

Willie said that to ignore the background of poverty which he said resulted in race riots in Northern cities "is putting one's head into the sand."

The two speeches came at different meetings during the convention at which the church is expected to take stands one way or the other on Episcopal involvement in civil rights.

The diocese of Louisiana at its convention voted to present a resolution to the general convention which states: "This body—the diocese of Louisiana—believes that, in working for those paramount human rights to which all men are entitled under God, property rights must be protected."

also receive due consideration." Resolutions from the dioceses of South Carolina, Mississippi and Alabama also would provide for less active involvement by the Episcopal Church in the civil rights movements.

Scioto Elks Burglarized

A sizable amount of money and four bottles of whiskey were taken Monday morning from the Scioto Elks Lodge, Scioto and Ohio Sts.

A money sack containing $234 was reported missing, along with the liquor. Sgt. Turney Ross and Patrolman Jack Mills said entry was gained by forcing a window on the north side of the building.

The entry and theft was discovered about noon yesterday when George Johnson, bartender at the lodge, opened for business.

Police said the burglary apparently happened after the lodge closed at 1 a.m. Monday.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russians stick their nose into American presidential campaigns every four years directly, indirectly or accidentally.

It was direct enough last July when Sen. Barry Goldwater won the Republican nomination and Premier Khrushchev accused him of trying "to enter the White House under the slogans of unbridled anti-communism and war threats."

And the Russian leader likened the Russian convention to a Nazi party rally.

Khrushchev has been quiet since. But now Russia has shot three men aloft in a space capsule circling the earth and outdoing anything his country ever attempted.

It isn't clear whether they had to do this right now for scientific reasons, hoped it might add to the wrangle between President Johnson and Goldwater, or just didn't care.

It's not the first time they did this kind of thing in the midst of a campaign. They did it 1960, when they orbited two dogs. Not to be outdone, the United States shot three mice 650 miles aloft before the campaign was over.

Yet, what the Russians did then was like a quiet afterthought to a bad year that got off to a pleasant start.

In 1960 President Eisenhower and Khrushchev not only exchanged Happy New Year greetings but arranged for Eisenhower to visit Russia in June. Then the roof fell down, or rather the American U2 spy-plane did.

The Russians shot it out of the sky over their motherland in May.

In quick order that month Khrushchev broke up the Paris summit meeting with Eisenhower, denounced him, called off the President's trip to Russia, and cabled Democratic party leaders in this country.

He said "broad sections of the (America) public and many prominent political figures in the United States are seriously concerned" about the Eisenhower.

Pickaway Grange

SALT CREEK VALLEY

Saltcreek Valley Grange met recently in regular session with Worthy Master Russell Miller in charge.

Mrs. Judson Beougher, home economics chairman, explained the several possible entries for Juvenile, Subordinate, Pomona, State, and National creative competition for 1965.

There was approval for continuing Christmas time help to Veterans' Hospital.

A check was sent to the County Extension Office in recognition of continued cooperation with awards for junior demonstrations at the County Fair.

Arrangements were made to assist with the card party held Oct. 10 at The 4-H and Grange Building.

An invitation was read from Scioto Grange to share in their service for installation of officers, 8 p. m. Oct. 15. This invitation was accepted.

The master appointed the luncheon committee for 1964-65: Mrs. Donald Moss, chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Spung, Robert Collins, Fred DeLong and Mrs. Francis Fraumfelter.

The lecturer, Mrs. Russell Miller, gave a special thought on kindness and supervised two different contests.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean, Mrs. Grace Anderson and Mrs. Leora Sayre.

The next meeting is Oct. 19. The beginning feature is a "Hard Luck Dinner" to which members and guests from Laurel Valley Grange may come in "poor attire". The menu will be corn bread and beans. The business session at 7:45 will be followed by a program on The Holy Land presented by The Rev. and Mrs. John Morgan of Ashville.

Hollywood Private Eyes Find Little Excitement

by THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hollywood has its private eyes, as do television and the paperbacks. But alas, there isn't much similarity between the real kind and the Philip Marlowes and the Sam Spades.

Take the gentlemen who run the imposing-sounding Central Bureau of Investigation, oldest detective agency on Hollywood Boulevard. Founded 35 years ago, it was recently sold by Chris Gugas, who became director of public safety for Omaha.

The new owners are Russell Jones and Bud Meyerkamp, who previously had operated the local office of a national detective agency. They discussed their work in their neat, second-floor office, filled with electronic gear, tools of the modern private investigator.

"Much of our work is giving polygraph tests," said Russell, a dark-haired, well-spoken man. "We give lie-detector tests for smaller police departments which don't have their own equipment, for employment screening in bonded jobs such as delivering wholesale jewelry, for attorneys who want to find out if their clients are telling the truth, and for companies seeking to solve pilferage."

"The rest of our work consists of industrial undercover work and civil and domestic investigations," said Meyerkamp, stocky and blond. "We employ seven full-time help and several part-time."

Both smiled when asked how their work compares to their fictional counterparts.

"I'm afraid we don't encounter much of the Peter Gunn-77 Sunset Strip stuff," said Jones. "About the only real danger we might face is from irate husbands.

"Oh, there may be times when you're making an arrest of a couple of big bruisers in a lonely spot at 2 in the morning; then you might feel a bit apprehensive. We make arrests just as anyone else can: a citizen's arrest. We don't carry guns since everyone is forbidden to carry concealed weapons, and we'd feel pretty silly with a pistol strapped outside our coats."

"Once in a while, when we're checking on a bail bond case, we might carry a pistol in the car. But we never have to use it."

"Danger?" added Meyerkamp. "This may sound incongruous, but the greatest danger we face is in the Los Angeles traffic. When you're tailing another car you've got to stay right with them. Let three cars intervene and you have to scramble to catch up. That can be quite hazardous."

And what of the legendary blondes who throw themselves at private eyes?

Meyerkamp shook his head sadly.

"Most of those who can afford to hire a private investigator are mature and not highly attractive," he said.

Young Uses Baseball as Talk Theme

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young used a baseball as a theme to hit at his Republican opponent Rep. Robert Taft Jr., and GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

"When Goldwater came to Ohio, the Cleveland Indians started looking for happier and more peaceful hunting grounds," the 75-year-old Cleveland Democrat said.

"Perhaps they were socially insecure."

Continuing with the baseball theme, Young, seeking to retain his Senate seat, added:

"Down in Taft Junior country, the Birchites have been embarrassed about the ball team being called the Reds."

He told a Columbus Day dinner audience at the Duke Club that the Arizona senator and the Cincinnati Republican still haven't discovered America.

"If Taft Junior and Goldwater had had to make the decision to authorize Columbus' exploration, the Indians would be heading an emerging nation today," he said.

Life Has Rhythm

The fact that life's events do not march along like soldiers on parade, but come in waves or cycles, is one that must strike everybody who gives thought to the subject. Growth and development generally express themselves in thrusts and pauses. The process goes forward for a time. Then comes a slowing down, and what seems an actual reverse of movement. Life has rhythm.

Recognition of this phenomenon should help prevent the discouragement and melancholy which at times overcome those who see an interruption in their progress.

Every good cause, every institution — yes every individual — is subject to this law of cyclical or rhythmic development. We speak of things growing "by leaps and bounds," but between these sudden spurts there are static periods.

Ferment in Asia

As if the situation in Asia were not confused enough, two events have occurred there which point out anew the unrest and changing alignments of the continent.

First came the signing of a treaty between India and the Soviet Union, under which Moscow has agreed to supply New Delhi military equipment.

In short order, a blast came from North Korea against the Kremlin for exploiting the Korean economy by buying at ridiculously low prices and selling the Koreans goods priced exorbitantly high. The charge, carried over official government broadcasts and printed in communist party newspapers, reflected the change which has taken place in North Korean sentiment since the early 1950s, when the Soviet Union was the main provider of war material in the aggression against MacArthur's forces.

Nowhere has the communist world's ideological struggle been so divisive within its own camp as in Asia. Peking has pulled into its orbit almost all communist camps in Asia, in addition to a number from Africa and a few from the extreme eastern regions of Europe.

Can You Remember When —

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Money may vanish, love may fly, but memory always remains.

It never deserts you. It never goes bankrupt. It is life's most constant friend.

And you've known a lot of living if you can look back and remember when —

You had to have a button hook to put on a pair of shoes.

Al Jolson was more popular than any three entertainers you can think of today.

Everybody in the gang envied you when you came down with a case of measles, and could have ice cream whenever you liked.

You could impress a girl by taking her for a trolley ride out to the end of the line and back.

Most butcher shops and saloons had sawdust on the floor. But you could always tell a butcher on the job from a bartender — because the butcher wore a straw hat and had a pencil behind his ear.

Only little old ladies preferred closed coups. Most families owned big open touring cars.

A mother worried that her son had fallen into the clutches of the devil if a neighbor reported he had seen the lad pitching pennies at a sidewalk crack on Sundays after church.

America was strictly a "Saturday Night" land. Only the rich or the uncaring poor ever went out on the town any other night of the week.

"I betcha I do too know which one is my mother! She's the one with a run in her stocking!"

Try and Stop Me
By BENNETT CERF

WHEN MR. DEUTSCH'S 12-year-old son sidled up to him and suggested a talk about women, Mr. Deutsch hurriedly went over in his mind all the things he had been told about the bees and the flowers in his youth. The son soon put his mind at ease, however, by remarking, "What I want to know, dad, is how to tell a girl in a nice way that she can't go fishing with you unless she baits her own hook."

They tell about a 15-year-old boy in an orphan's home who had an incurable stutter. It was agony for him to talk to strangers.

One Sunday the minister who came out regularly from town was detained, and the 15-year-old boy, to the surprise of the people in charge, volunteered to say the prayer in his stead. He did it perfectly, too, with the proper reverence and not a single stutter. Later, he explained, "I don't stutter when I talk to God. He loves me."

An author of two novels that had sold over three hundred thousand copies each had a great lump of a son, and his publisher's heart sank when the author said, "My boy would like a job in your shop." "Just what can he do?" quavered the publisher. "Absolutely nothing," admitted the author. "Well, that's helpful anyhow," nodded the publisher bravely. "At least we won't have to break him in."

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...
By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Despite the most relentless health controls, epidemic outbreaks of diseases still occur.

The city of Houston, Tex., has been the unfortunate victim of an epidemic of encephalitis (or sleeping sickness), even though its health controls are of the highest order.

This epidemic serves to emphasize that there can be no let-up in the vigilance against the causes of disease.

Viral encephalitis was concentrated in Houston, but also was reported in isolated cases in Florida, Illinois and Arizona.

This particular type of sleeping sickness or brain fever, one of the many varieties of encephalitis, is spread from animals to man by insects. The Culex, or common mosquito, was the offender in this epidemic.

Human beings are not ordinarily prone to insect-borne encephalitis as are birds and small animals. The disease, therefore, can be considered a so-called "accident," from the point of view of public health.

The outbreak in Texas has been traced to a specific virus referred to as the "St. Louis" type. The name derives from the fact that it had produced a severe outbreak of sleeping sickness in that city in 1933.

At the present time, there is no known vaccine for immunization against all types of encephalitis. It is important, therefore, that the disease be prevented by scrupulous cleanliness and eradication of those places where insects can pick up the virus.

A bulwark of defense against communicable disease exists in Atlanta, Ga. Here, the United States Public Health Service houses a concentrated force of experts on epidemics.

When the call came out from Houston, this center in Atlanta sent out an army of health experts to battle and destroy every stagnant ditch and breeding place where the Culex mosquito might be flourishing.

Thousands of gallons of Diesel oil blanketed the stagnant areas to destroy the potential carriers of this dread disease.

The unfortunate victims have highlighted the importance of never-ending watchfulness of every area where the virus of this type of encephalitis may breed.

Concentrated control measures are being established so that even occasional mild epidemics can be prevented.

At the same time, vaccines against sleeping sickness are being prepared, with more and more success.

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's economy — outside General Motors itself — should be little hurt if the big auto company's strike ends soon.

If work resumes in another week or so, GM would push hard to speed production and get new model cars to dealers now hurting and worried. The company's suppliers, including the steel mills, would also work at top speed to send parts and materials.

A bobble in the industrial production index may show up on the chart of current activity. But most economic forecasters expect lost time to be made up in November and December at the latest — all this, of course, if the strike ends shortly.

This is probably why the administration and the stock market have been taking the strike fairly calmly.

Their optimism is based on the union-management settlement of national issues and the belief that troublesome local plant squabbles must yield to compromise soon — the sooner the better for the general economy.

If the strike doesn't end soon there could be real scars. The reason this one company's labor troubles are so important to the economy is this: It not only is by far the largest firm in a basic industry, it is the biggest manufacturer in the nation. Together with its own output, and that of the suppliers of parts, and the providers of steel and other materials, GM commands a sizable share of industrial activity — too big to be ignored.

Worse, any real threat of a prolonged work stoppage would ripple out to many other phases of business activity — such as transportation and merchants who cater to laid-off workers.

Since the strike, GM dealers report losing some sales because of delayed delivery. But their competitors insist their sales continue to boom.

Steel production also holds high. The mills have a nice backlog of orders to keep them busy, orders from many other industries besides the auto partners. Steel's big worry just now is the slowdown in orders from, or instructions to hold up shipments to, G M plants and parts suppliers. Steelmen still believe that the shipment pressure will be resumed once the local GM plant issues are cleared.

All this optimism, however, doesn't hide a deeper worry. This is the fear in some quarters that the national auto compact will set a pattern for labor demands in other industries less favored by record profits to absorb the rise in production costs.

Steel itself is on notice that next spring its union will press for big gains. Steel executives are hourly warning that price increases really are needed now and would be imperative if production costs rise.

This inflation threat is still just a conversation piece. But it is causing more and more uneasiness.

Solutions Creaking at Joints

By John Chamberlain

One of the most frequently voiced objections to Barry Goldwater is that he is too much enamored of "simple" solutions for complex economic problems. Well, maybe Barry hasn't yet hit upon the right sort of simple programs. Nevertheless, it is indisputable that all our complex solutions that date from the Roosevelt-Nineteen Thirties are creaking at every joint. They get more and more Rube Goldbergian as the years go by, and a big reaction against them is surely coming.

Indeed, a revolution against the more fancy Keynesian spending policies has already begun. Bowing to the latest intellectual pressures, the Johnson Administration made a deal last winter with Senator Harry Byrd, the influential fiscal watchdog, which resulted in coupling the income tax cut with a promise to keep the federal budget somewhere on the sunny side of $100 billion a year. And Hubert Humphrey has been telling the farmers that government compulsion in crop restriction and high price supports must give way to simpler voluntary programs.

This sort of thing, however, is a pinprick approach to ending needless complexity. With thousands of civil servants still shuffling mountains of paper and issuing countless orders to producers and consumers throughout the nation, we need bolder solutions. Feeling his way in this area, Barry Goldwater has suggested that the federal government give tax money back to the states to dispose of as they see fit. Economist Milton Friedman of the University of Chicago has suggested that an annual subsidy to families making less than $3,000 a year would be both more productive of welfare and less costly than maintaining thirty or forty separate anti-poverty agencies. A Yankee inventor from Farmington, Connecticut, E. S. Hall, urges a remission of corporate income taxes to companies that are willing to extend profit sharing. The idea of retiring our swollen Washington bureaucracies without doing too much damage to individual citizens who have come to depend on them is definitely on the march.

Against this background of felt needs, a plan offered by publisher John H. Perry, Jr., of West Palm Beach, Florida, comes with both urgency and force. Mr. Perry's idea, which is supported by financial editor Donald I. Rogers and is commended by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Senator George Smathers of the Senate Finance Committee, is explored at some length in a book called "The National Dividend," but last week in New York I heard its author compress it into a single sentence. Briefly, Mr. Perry would take corporate income taxes (limited, as he suggests, to fifty percent of profits) and put them into a special fund for

Soviet 3-Man Space Ship Back on Earth

Soviet Lt. Col. Valery F. Bykovsky in June 1963. His flight lasted 119 hours and six minutes, just under five days.

In Washington, James Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said the Soviet feat was "a clear indication that the Russians are continuing a large space program for the achievement of national power and prestige."

U.S. officials pointed out that the American space program does not call for a similar feat until 1966. Two-man Gemini space ships are scheduled to go into orbit early next year, however.

As their flight neared its end, the three new space travelers reported "everything fine."

A Tass correspondent in the space flight control center said the medical control instruments relaying data from the craft showed the three men in fine condition. He reported:

"Their pulse rate never once rose over 70 since their entry into orbit. The lung supply with oxygen was satisfactory and all three slept well."

"Doctors regard this as an obvious result of the splendid conditions created in the cabin."

"This time . . . we are receiving from the space ship professional reports on the entire intricate complex of medical-physiological conditions."

The cosmonauts wore light woolen clothing rather than the heavy space suits worn on previous flights.

The Russians said they had not put aboard any equipment to overcome effects of weightlessness. They said the pilot reported the travelers were too busy to notice any such effects.

After the seven-hour break during the night, television and radio receivers were tuned in to the control center as the ship passed over Soviet soil and a picture of the cosmonauts appeared on the TV screen.

"The transmission began unexpectedly for them, and we saw the men engaged in their work," said Tass. "Vladimir was turning the pages of the flight log. Konstantin's face was obscured by his hand in the foreground. The doctor was writing something, apparently jotting down the results of medical observations. When they heard by radio that the earth was calling them, they all smiled at once."

The cosmonauts radioed that they slept in shifts and woke with hearty appetites.

During the night, Tass said, Feoktistov followed a crowded work schedule, making visual observations of the stars, checking the instruments aboard the ship and controlling the equipment.

At the 14th orbit the trio radioed: "Breakfasted with good appetite and pleasure. Feeling fine. Everything fine on board."

The size of the cabin was not given, but television views indicated the three might be cramped.

Japanese scientists in Tokyo estimated that the ship weighed 15 tons. The weight of the heaviest previous space craft disclosed by the Russians was five tons.

The Japanese expressed belief the booster rocket that put Voskhod into orbit was more powerful than America's Saturn 1 but had less thrust than Saturn 5, still being developed.

Voskhod was launched by "a new powerful rocket" from a cosmodrome at Baikonur, 1,250 miles southeast of Moscow.

The ship apparently landed in the same general area, where Southern Siberia meets Soviet Central Asia.

On a pass over the United States, the cosmonauts radioed greetings to the American people, Tass said.

"From aboard the space ship Voskhod, we wish the people of the United States of America peace and happiness," the message said.

If you're over 35 and you feel groggy, out-of-sorts — your trouble may be due to constipation caused by a slowed-down system. The laxative you're used to may no longer be best for you. Try SERUTAN, the all-vegetable laxative aid especially made for folks over 35.

SERUTAN provides the peristaltic stimulation to wake up your slowed-down system. This is entirely different from pills, salts or oils. SERUTAN acts like the naturally laxative hydrogel in fruits and vegetables to bring real relief from constipation. So, after 35, take SERUTAN daily to help stimulate your slowed-down system to more normal regularity. Remember, when you read SERUTAN backwards, it spells nature's.

Women Candidates Hit Nation's Campaign Trail

NEW YORK (AP)—A number of women holding high state and national offices are bidding for re-election this year, and a great many more have jumped into the political fray for the first time.

A few of the newcomers could make political history in their respective states if they win.

In general, the lady candidates tend to voice the belief that they can do just as good a job—and maybe even better—than the menfolk.

Some unusual situations developed as the distaff division doffed aprons to battle for ballots.

In several major races it's a woman vs. woman showdown.

A 74-year-old woman is seeking a ninth term in the Massachusetts State Senate.

Men have plumb given up trying for the office of secretary of state in New Mexico.

An Iowa woman has a chance to become the first Negro to serve in her state's legislature.

In several states there isn't a single woman running for statewide or congressional office.

Among those seeking re-election are several veteran congresswomen.

One of the most prominent is Rep. Frances P. Bolton, Ohio Republican who has served since 1939. She was the first woman elected to Congress in Ohio.

Others include Reps. Katharine St. George, New York Republican first elected in 1946; Edna F. Kelly, New York Democrat who has served since 1949; Leonor K. Sullivan, Missouri Democrat who became the state's first congresswoman in 1952; and Florence P. Dwyer, New Jersey Republican first elected in 1956.

Still others are Washington state's two women representatives, Catherine May, a Republican first elected in 1958, and Julia Hansen, a Democrat who has served since 1960.

A woman candidate for the U.S. Senate this year is Genevieve Blatt, 50-year-old Pennsylvania state secretary of internal affairs and the first woman ever to hold state office in Pennsylvania. She was elected to the state office in 1954 and has been re-elected twice.

Miss Blatt, a Democrat, is running against Republican Sen. Hugh Scott. The race is expected to be close.

Another senatorial candidate is Mrs. Elly Peterson, a Republican and the first woman nominated by a major party for the post in Michigan. Her opponent is Democratic Sen. Philip Hart.

In Illinois, the fight for the 15th District congressional seat pits a woman against another woman. Republican Rep. Charlotte Reid, a 51-year-old widow who won the seat in 1962, is being opposed by Mrs. Poppy X. Mitchell, 46, a housewife making her first try for political office.

In Kentucky, the only woman running for a major office is Mrs. Frances Mills, 43-year-old Democratic nominee for Congress in the 5th District.

If elected she would be the first woman ever to represent

Walbridge Firm Low On Fostoria Job Bid

CHICAGO (AP)—A Wood County, Ohio, firm, Rudolph Libbe Inc., of Walbridge, has submitted the apparent low bid of $24,500 for improving the post office in Fostoria, according to the General Services Administration.

Accused Bank Thug Enters Guilty Plea

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Curtis Alvin Angell, 31, accused of robbing the Farmersville branch of the First National Bank of Miami last May 22, changed his pleas to guilty Monday shortly before his scheduled trial. U. S. District Court Judge Carl A. Weinman postponed sentencing pending a probation report.

the Democratic party as a Kentucky congresswoman. She also would be the second woman in Kentucky history to represent the state in Congress.

In Hawaii, State Sen. Patsy Mink, 36, the first woman of Japanese ancestry to be licensed to practice law there and the first to serve in the state legislature, is a Democratic candidate for Congress.

Already assured of a seat in Congress is a 55-year-old Georgia grandmother, Mrs. Janet Merritt of Americus, a Democrat. She has no Republican opponent.

The first Negro to serve in the Iowa legislature may be a woman, Mrs. Willie Stevenson Glatton, a Des Moines attorney and wife of Municipal Judge Luther Glatton. She was the first woman prosecutor in Des Moines municipal courts.

The office of secretary of state in New Mexico has been a woman's world since 1922 and it's going to stay that way at least for two more years. The current officeholder, Mrs. Alberta Miller, a Democrat, has for her opponent Miss B. Lyman, a Republican.

The candidates for the same office in South Dakota are Miss Alma Larson, 32, a Republican, and Mrs. Travis Lewis, a Democrat.

In Arizona, Mrs. Jewel Jordan, a Democrat, is running for and eighth term as state auditor with Republican Robert Hubbard as the opponent, and Mrs. Sarah Folsom, a Republican, is seeking to unseat Democrat W. W. Dick as state superintendent of public instruction.

WATER TASTES AWFUL?

Too often people who wouldn't dream of eating off-flavor food will choke down foul tasting sulphur water or chlorine water . . . because they don't know how easy it is to improve it!

The cure is a special home-water filter, the Aqua-Pure® Taste and Odor filter that can be installed under your kitchen sink in minutes. It filters out all bad tastes and odors, gives you all the really good-tasting cooking and drinking water you can use.

Only a modest investment, and a simple installation problem — just pick up your phone and tell us to bring one out and install it. Your family and guests will thank you.

Politicians Set To Invade Ohio Region

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio, as sought after as the prettiest girl at the prom in this election year, will be invaded by another batch of big name campaigners in the next few days.

Among them will be former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who will fly into Port Columbus Airport about noon Thursday to campaign for Republican presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater. Eisenhower is to speak from the same platform at Columbus' Veterans Memorial Building where Goldwater spoke a little over a week ago.

A day ahead of Eisenhower will be former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who is scheduled to do his bit for Goldwater in Toledo, Sandusky and Lakewood Wednesday.

Goldwater himself is to fly into Mansfield next Saturday, moving on to Akron, Canton and Youngstown. Rep. William E. Miller of New York State, Goldwater's Republican running mate, was in Ohio Saturday and is to return Oct. 21.

President Johnson may visit Columbus during his campaign visit to Ohio on Friday, state Democratic Chairman William L. Coleman said today.

Coleman said the indications "are strong" that Johnson will stop in Columbus, but he talked with national Democratic headquarters shortly after noon today "and still could not get official confirmation."

The chairman said he has been assured that the president plans to visit two of three cities — Cincinnati, Columbus, or Dayton—during his second campaign swing into the Buckeye State.

Unofficially, Coleman said, he understands Johnson will visit Cincinnati late Friday afternoon then fly to Columbus for a speech around 8 p.m. That schedule would rule out Dayton, he said.

The program will be under the direction of William Stout. The session will be conducted at the St. Philip's Church Parish House.

Cleveland Workman Is Killed by Acid

CLEVELAND (AP) — Acid shot all over 58-year-old Harry C. Runyon from a pipe he was dismantling at Harshaw Chemical Co. Monday. He died of the burns shortly afterwards at Deaconess Hospital. Plant officials said the pipe the Brooklyn man was taking apart had been drained of acid but the liquid somehow got back in the pipe.

The Ohio Festival Queen contest is being sponsored this year, for the first time, by the Ohio Festival and Events Assn.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Tuesday, Oct. 13, the 287th day of 1964. There are 79 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1744, a heroine of the American Revolution, Molly Pitcher, was born.

On this date: In 1792, the cornerstone of the White House was laid by George Washington.

In 1845, the people of Texas ratified the U.S. Constitution.

In 1942, a bill was introduced in the House to lower the World War II draft age from 20 to 18.

In 1943, Italy declared war on its former Axis partner, Germany.

Ten years ago—The commissioner of defense for West Germany, Theodore Blank, reported that the new German military establishment would not include re-creation of the old German General Staff.

Apportioning Decision OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused Monday to reconsider its June 1 decision in three Alabama cases that districts in both houses of state legislatures must be substantially equal in population.

It also refused to reconsider its June 22 decision holding Florida's system of legislative apportionment is unconstitutional and its decision the same day that struck down a plan of apportionment for the Illinois Senate.

The rulings, with a nationwide impact, were expected to mean increased representation in legislatures for cities and reduced rural power in legislatures.

Thursday is the kickoff date for the traditional Rexall Original One Cent Sale at the local store.

Considered one of the "greatest merchandising events of the year, the sale will again feature scores of nationally advertised Rexall products, on sale at two for the regular price of one, plus a penny.

Norman Kutler, local manager, said today "As a special feature of our one-cent sale, we now have available for our customers advance shopping lists."

Each one-cent sale, Kutler said, offers almost 50 per cent savings on such items as toiletries, medicines, household goods and personal needs during the 10-day sale.

RATHER BE RIGHTS — Rep. John Blatnik (above) has warned that liberal Democrats in the House plan to crack down on defecting Southern colleagues in the area of seniority rights. The ultimatum, which carries with it ouster from the Democratic caucus, would leave a Congressman without means to secure committee assignments unless he is accepted by the GOP.

Pittsburgh Glass Talks Are Broken Off

BARBERTON, Ohio (AP) — Negotiations broke off for an indefinite period Monday in a strike of 1,500 hourly workers of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. chemical division plant here. A two-year contract between the company and the Allied Chemical & Alkali Workers Union Local 1 expired June 27 and had been extended on a day-to-day basis until the walk-out began Sunday night.

Special Event Featured at EUB Class Meet

The Loyal Daughters Class of First EUB Church met in the home of Mrs. John Kerns, Atwater Ave. A special event of the evening was the grab-bag of gifts.

The class song, "Whisper a Prayer", was sung. Mrs. Kerns presented Mrs. Clarence Radcliffe, who used the theme "Stir Up What You Have" for devotions. She stated that if each of us use what we have we will meet our responsibilities in our church, our community and in our social obligations.

Miss Gladys Noggle, president, presided for the business meeting. The secretary's report and the treasurer's report were given by Miss Jessie Cummings and Mrs. Hazel Merz.

Miss Noggle reminded the class that Oct. 18 is General Rally Day in the church and the Church School and asked the contact committees to participate.

A committee was appointed to locate a family with whom the class can share during Christmas. This committee is comprised of Mrs. Stella Sims; Mrs. Eloise Starkey and Mrs. Mae Hawkes.

Appointed to prepare the slate of officers for the November meeting were Mrs. Thelma Jones, chairman; Mrs. Zola Hixon and Mrs. Blanche Kerns. Mrs. Helen Dawson; Mrs. Opal Leist and Mrs. Gladys Valentine were named to the committee to prepare calendars for the coming year.

Members contributed to the love offering and prayers were offered especially for those of the class who are ill or have illness in their families.

Refreshments were served to 21 members by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Ella Overly and Mrs. Mary Flowers.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

His God Is Mammon!

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a very good provider, but he has made money his god. He thinks he can do no wrong as long as he isn't taking the bread out of his family's mouth. I caught him with another woman, and he said, "So what? I've never spent a dollar on her. She pays for everything!" When he drinks he thinks it is all right because he has an expense account and can drink on company money. He has never denied me anything I wanted, I will say that for him. But I wish I could get it through his head that I would rather have more of HIM and less of his money.

BIG SHOT'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: Since he has never denied you anything, ask him for one more personal favor. Ask him to lay out $25 an hour for an explanation of why he thinks a fat bank account buys him immunity from decent behavior. In this way his "god" could really help him.

DEAR ABBY: When a fellow asks a girl for a date, is it all right for the girl to ask him where they are going? Also when a girl and her date go to different schools and their schools play each other in basketball or football, whose side do they sit on? Please put your answers in the paper as I am having a big argument with somebody over the answers.

DEAR O. O.: Yes, it is proper for a girl to ask the boy where they are going. How else would she know whether to dress for a movie or a weiner roast? They sit on the boy's side. He's the host—unless, of course, she has come up with the tickets.

DEAR ABBY: I notice that you, too, have heard from "IN LOVE," who says she is in love with her doctor. She states that her doctor has no such feelings for her, and she is so right! I am her doctor. Please tell "IN LOVE" to quit sending me those birthday cards, and other messages, which she addresses to me at one of the hospitals where I visit. I have no mail privileges there, and the stuff is simply readdressed and sent to my home or office. I have one heck of a time explaining that it is from "one of those nuts." (Anyway, how did she learn my birth date?) In short, I don't want any mail I have to worry about. Sign me,

EMBARRASSED

DEAR ABBY: How can you tell someone that he eats like it is his last meal on earth? Abby, I am so embarrassed when we have company, or when we are invited to someone's house for a meal. The noise that is made by that man when he is chewing and swallowing is just terrible. He sounds like an animal. I can't tell him because he is my father.

EMBARRASSED
DEAR EMBARRASSED: You are right. You can't. But your mother can. Why don't you tell her to tell him? It is a perfectly legitimate complaint.

Mrs. David A. Blue read "The High Tide at Gettysburg"; Mrs. Sylvia Harper, "Jerusalem"; Mrs. Frank Webbe, "Growing Old"; Mrs. Kerns, "We Celebrate Our National Anthems 150th Birthday"; Mrs. B. M. Wignel, "An Ancient Prayer." The closing ode was followed by the pledge of allegiance and the group repeating "Faith of Our Fathers."

Mrs. Wignel will be hostess at the Nov. 10 meeting.

Mrs. Bosworth Slated As JC Wives Speaker

The Jaycee Wives will meet 8 p. m. today in the home of Mrs. Harold Nagel, Route 4.

Mrs. Orley Bosworth will be guest speaker.

Guest Speaker Slated By Newcomer's Club

Dr. Ray Carroll will speak on hypnotism when the Newcomer's Club meets 8 p. m. tomorrow in the First EUB Church, E. Main St.

All newcomers are invited to attend.

Circle A Meeting Scheduled Thursday

Circle A of the First Presbyterian Church will meet 1:30 p. m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Lemuel Weldon, 137 W. Union St.

Mrs. Weaver Feted with Bridal Shower

Mrs. Zelpha (Drum) Weaver, Tarlton, was honored with a bridal shower held in the home of Mrs. Richard Rhymer, and daughter, Venita, Stoutsville.

A color scheme of pink and white was used for the decorating. Contests were won by Mrs. Joe Jenkins and Mrs. Francis Weaver, Tarlton, and Miss Diane Ratcliff, Stoutsville.

Others present were Mrs. Judy Pontius, Circleville; Mrs. Eldon Drum and Mrs. Judd Poling, Route 4; Mrs. Gladys Griffith, Mrs. Twyla McCabe, Mrs. Pauline Peace, Mrs. Margaret Ballard, Mrs. Naomi Hanes, Mrs. Sandra Bailey, Mrs. Viola Hartranft, Mrs. Ruth Jenne, Mrs. Marie Karr and daughter, Pamela, all of Tarlton; Mrs. Joe Justice, Bloomingsville.

Mrs. Dorothy Drum, Mrs. Lillie Morrison, Stoutsville; Mrs. Marion Gearhart, Mrs. Agnes Stritenburger, Mrs. Gladys Karshner, Mrs. Mazie Evans, Mrs. Susan Evans, Mrs. Hope Miller, Mrs. Bessie Raymond, Hallsville.

Gifts were sent by Miss Carolyn Harrison, Miss Jean Alkire, Miss Mary Lou Huffer, Stoutsville; Mrs. Lucia Spangler, Mrs. Ruth Hunt, Miss Sally Weaver, Miss Cindy Weaver, Tarlton; Mrs. Lester Poling, Mrs. Merle Poling, Miss Maxine Poling, Route 4.

Cardinals Now Rated As Favorites in Series

ST. LOUIS (AP) — For the first time since the start of hostilities, the St. Louis Cardinals found themselves World Series favorites over the New York Yankees today.

Odds-makers made the high-flying Redbirds a strong 2-1 choice following their 5-2 triumph Monday that gave them a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven Series.

Everything appears to be stacked in favor of the Cards. First, they will be back home for the sixth game Wednesday after taking two out of three in New York.

Second, their pitching, thanks to today's respite because of travel, is in tip-top shape with veteran Curt Simmons primed for his return engagement with young Jim Bouton of the Yankees.

Third, Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane thinks there is a strong possibility that Julian Javier, the convalescing second baseman, will be ready to make his first start.

Finally, the Cards have won all four full-length World Series in which they have participated. They defeated the Yankees in seven games in 1926, the Philadelphia Athletics in 1931, the Detroit Tigers in 1934 and the Boston Red Sox in 1946.

Should the Cardinals lose the sixth game, they will still have the home edge in the finale with ace Bob Gibson, a strong possibility to make his third start in the Series. Whitey Ford, currently nursing a tender right heel, would be Gibson's probable opponent.

The closeness of the Series fails to tell by how wide a margin the Cardinals have outplayed the Yankees in the first five games. The Yankees hold a slight edge in over-all batting, but the Cards lead in everything else. They have outrun, outfielded, outpitched and outmaneuvered the Yankees.

Monday's game, won in 10 innings by the Cardinals on catcher Timmy McCarver's three-run homer, was a typical example. The Cardinals, except for shortstop Dick Groat's error in the ninth which paved the way for Tommy Tresh's game-winning homer, sparkled in the field.

In contrast, the Yankees' defensive play, as in the first four games, was sloppy and uncertain. New York was guilty of it sixth and seventh errors of the Series. An error by catcher Ellie Howard on an interference play helped the Cards fill the bases in the first inning, but young Mel Stottlemyre pitched his way out of the jam without any damage.

Stottlemyre was betrayed

THE BAT AND THE ARM — Tim McCarver's bat and Bob Gibson's pitching arm combined yesterday to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-2 edge in the World Series over the New York Yankees. Gibson, (left) went 10 innings on the mound, fanning 13 Yankees and allowing two runs on six hits. McCarver's tenth inning homerun with two men on base provided the winning margin.

TENTH INNING HOMER WHIPS YANKS — St. Louis Cards catcher Tim McCarver, who struck out with the bases loaded in the first inning, blasts a home run (above) with two on in the top of the tenth inning to give the Cards a 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees in the fifth game of the World Series, in Yankee Stadium.

Wittenberg Remains Atop College Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sometimes winning just isn't good enough in the competitive business of football polls.

Take The Associated Press' small-college poll for example. Louisiana Tech was sixth a week ago before winning its fourth game of the season 6-3 against Southwest Louisiana. That close score upset the selectors enough and as a result Tech resides three notches lower, in the No. 9 spot, on this week's poll.

Florida A&M apparently knew that winning wasn't enough to please the panel of sports writers and broadcasters. You have to win big. The Rattlers rolled up a 56-15 score against Central State and climbed from fifth place to No. 3.

But a big score wasn't enough to move San Diego State past Wittenberg into the top spot. The Aztecs ripped Long Beach State 45-8, but remained No. 2 behind Wittenberg which squeezed past Akron 7-0.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points:

1. Wittenberg (8)	128
2. San Diego State (3)	87
3. Florida A&M	73
4. Lamar Tech (2)	66
5. Prairie View	57
6. Delaware	37
7. Susquehanna	36
8. Abilene	33
9. Louisiana Tech	25
10. Texas A&I	21

Booster Club Set For Fish Fry at Homecoming Tilt

The Circleville Booster Club's annual fish fry is scheduled 5 to 7 p. m. Friday preceding the Homecoming Football Game with Wilmington.

Ned Young and Snap Ankrom are co-chairman for the event. The Fish Fry has come to be one of the largest fund raising programs of the Booster Club.

Members of the committee are John Jenkins, Chet Iery, Joe Bell, Charles Walters, Ralph Starkey and Burl Wiggins.

Last year's effort netted approximately $225 for the organization.

THE MENU features "all the fish you can eat, plus cole slaw, baked beans, tomatoes, coffee, milk or softdrinks." Youngsters under 12 pay only half price.

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Circleville Booster Club assist the men with the event.

All funds raised are directed toward the various athletic team functions at the high school.

This year a pre-game meal is furnished for the football team members. The basketball squad will be allotted a sum of money to feed players when they have road games.

Some of the major items purchased by the Booster Club in recent years include a whirlpool bath for the use of all sports and a football blocking sled.

Texas Keeps Top Rank on Football Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That blur that flew past the other teams in The Associated Press' college football poll this week was Illinois but the flight was a bumpy one and worse than that, it was in the wrong direction.

The Illini, ranked No. 2 in last week's AP poll of sports writers and broadcasters, took on fourth-ranked Ohio State last Saturday and came out on the short end of a 26-0 score.

The impressive victory moved the Buckeyes into the No. 2 slot and dropped Illinois right out of the Top Ten. But the Illini slide off the poll wasn't a lonely one. Kentucky and Michigan State, both thumped on Saturday, also dipped out of sight.

Texas continued to top the poll with 30 first-place votes of the 40 ballots cast and 387 points. Ohio State had seven first-place ballots and 344 points in the voting which awards 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points:

1. Texas (30)	387
2. Ohio State (7)	344
3. Alabama (2)	307
4. Notre Dame (1)	281
5. Michigan	233
6. Nebraska	142
7. Syracuse	86
8. Arkansas	59
9. Louisiana State	59
10. Florida State	56

Colts Clobber Cards by 47-27

BALTIMORE (AP) — Richardson made an error, but it didn't help the Cards.

The Cards were from St. Louis, but of the football variety, and Richardson was Willie Richardson of the Baltimore Colts. His miscue mattered little since his team already had the game safely touched away.

The 47-27 Colt victory before a record Memorial Stadium crowd of 60,213 Monday night gave Baltimore sole possession of first place in the Western Conference of the National Football League.

Richardson dropped a pass in the end zone. However, it came in the fourth quarter and Baltimore was ahead 44-13.

Miami To Travel To Northwestern

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Only two games mark the Mid-American Conference football schedule this week as Miami, Ohio University and Marshall play outside the league.

Ambitious Miami, sporting three triumphs and a tie, faces its toughest task of the season. The Redskins, riding atop the MAC standings with a perfect 3-0 record, tangle with Northwestern at Evanston, Ill.

The Wildcats whacked Miami 37-6 a year ago, so the outlook is not bright. Once more, the Redskins may be looking ahead to an Oct. 24 engagement with defending champion Ohio.

The Bobcats play host to independent Xavier, Marshall is at home to Kentucky State and in the only conference action, Kent State entertains Western Michigan and Bowling Green visits Toledo.

Last weekend's activity went pretty much as expected. Miami was hard pressed in a 17-14 thriller over Kent State (0-1-1). The victory margin came on Glen Trout's 21-yard field goal in the final quarter.

Ohio (1-0-1) withstood a strong Toledo (0-2) finish to get by the Rockets, 21-12; Bowling Green (1-0) recorded its fourth straight decision and its first in the loop by clipping Western Michigan (0-2) 28-8, and Marshall (1-1) edged Buffalo, 14-12.

Several school marks fell by the wayside. Miami quarterback Ernie Kellermann gained 114 yards total offense to set a three-year Redskin record of 3,002 yards; Toledo signal-caller Dan Simrell completed 16 of 30 aeriels for another mark and two more records came in the Marshall contest.

Quarterback Howie Miller, who hit end Bob Pruett with 85 and 56-yard touchdown strikes, connected on 11 of 20 passes for 284 yards, a one-game MAC high for most passing yardage in a single game.

Pruett nabbed six tosses for 193 yards, another all-time high. His reception on the 85-yard TD established a conference record for the longest touchdown pass.

Ford Punt, Pass and Kick Competition Winners Named

A total of 64 young gridders registered and 58 of them participated in this year's annual Punt, Pass and Kick program at the Circleville High School athletic field.

The yearly program here was sponsored by Kenny Hannan Ford. Dwight Radcliff directed the Sunday afternoon activity.

In the eight, nine and 10-year old groups first place winners were awarded a warmup jackets. Second placers received field goal place kickers and those finishing third earned footballs.

In the 11, 12 and 13-year old age groups, winners received a gold plaques. Second places were good for bronze plaques and third places silver plaques.

ROCK DAVIS, W. A. Sibbick Jr. and Jim York finished first second and third respectively in the youngest group.

Jerry Sabine was the winner of the nine-year-old group while Craig Lund was second and Randall Wharton finished third.

In the 10-year-old group, Danie Delong was first, Mike Clover second and Richard Speakman third.

The 11-year-old group saw Richard Radcliff win first, Gregg Heiskell second and Mike Sabine third.

First in the 12-year-old bracket was Dennis Sowers. Tom Bowers was second and Chris Long third.

The 13-year-old bracket included 12-year-olds who participate in junior high football. The winner was Frankie Carter. John Simison Jr. was second and Richard Walters third.

Massillon '11' Clings to Top Rank in State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon's nine-time champions hit the half-way mark in the Ohio high school grid campaign as the state's top-rated powerhouse today in The Associated Press poll, clinging to the spot it has held all season.

But Canton McKinley's Bulldogs, who fight it out with the Tigers in the season's finale, skidded from second to third despite halting Canton Central's undefeated squad by 27-6.

Sandusky, 34-6 winner over Lorain, grabbed the second spot, while Springfield South held the fourth rank where it has been locked in each poll.

Findlay, 39-0 loser to Elyria, and Columbus Waterson, beaten 29-28 by Newark, dropped from the top 10, while Elyria and Dayton Chaminade made their first appearance in the elite list.

Massillon could have a bit of trouble Saturday night against Cleveland Benedictine. The Bennies were easy 26-6 winners over Cleveland East last week—the same East team Massillon whipped 16-0 with two touchdowns in the last two minutes. Friday's Massillon — Steubenville game was the 27th in the series. The Big Red won the first two, but Massillon has taken 24 of the last 25, along with a tie in 1945. Earl Bruce, Massillon coach, has a 27-game victory string going—22 at Sandusky and five at Massillon.

Niles, fighting to hang on to the state title it won in 1963, ended Steubenville Central's four-game winning streak 34 to 6. Buster Yannon, who had rushed for 881 yards and scored 14 touchdowns, was held to 36 yards rushing and 13 passing—and scoreless—by the Red Dragons.

Shown are the first-place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 10-9-8-etc basis, and the won-lost records of the leaders:

Teams	Poll Pts.	W-L
Massillon (10)	308	5-0

U.S. Swimmers Smash Olympic Backstroke Mark

TOKYO (AP) —Towering Jed Graef, a 22-year-old Princeton student, smashed the world record with a 2:10.3 effort Tuesday and led an American 1-2-3 sweep of medals in the men's 200-meter backstroke championship in the Olympic Games.

Garry Gilley of Huntington, Ind., was second and Bob Bennett of Long Beach, Calif. third in the American sweep that pushed the Yankee harvest of Olympic medals to 10—two gold, five silver and three bronze.

Graef, a lanky, 6-foot-6, 22-year-old from Verona, N.J., trimmed six-tenths of a second off the old world mark of 2:10.9 set by America's Tom Stock in 1962.

Dilley also was under the old mark with a time of 2:10.5, losing to Graef by fingernail in a photo finish. Bennett was caught in 2:13.1.

Bucks Get Chance To Rate No. 1

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's second-ranked Buckeyes get a chance to enhance their national standing Saturday if they can push aside the Trojans of Southern California in impressive fashion.

And they can do it with the entire country looking on, for the game in Buckeye Stadium will be on nationwide television, in color.

The Bucks, three-time winners are on the heels of Texas in the race for the national championship. Last Saturday, after being held to 7-7 at the half by Gomer Jones' Oklahoma team, the Longhorns broke away to a 28 to 7 conquest.

But Southern Cal, earlier in the campaign, was an impressive 40 to 14 victor over the Sooners—giving the voters a comparative score to consider should the Bucks turn back the coast club before some 80,000 fans in addition to the video viewers.

And the Bucks have some added incentive to do just that. A year ago the Trojans halted the unbeaten Bucks 32 to 3 on the western gridiron—the most one-sided defeat coach Woody Hayes has suffered in his 14 campaigns here.

The Trojans come to town boasting victories by 21-0 over Colorado and 31-7 over Texas A. & M., and a 7-17 loss to Michigan State, in addition to the romp over Oklahoma.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Raymond Burr, the eminent television barrister who in seven years has never failed to win a case, came to town the other day long enough to be master of ceremonies at a dinner for Medals of Honor winners. He confirmed reports that he, too, believes he is playing his last season as "Perry Mason."

Without a trace of regret, Burr said, "I think this year will wind it up. And, as you know, there are a number of other projects I've been interested in for some time."

There are, of course, Burr's flourishing art galleries and his interest in legal aid organizations, stimulated by his part in the courtroom series.

"And I've been talking with Don Pedderson (a TV producer) about a new series," Burr said. "It's working title is 'The Power,' and I'll play the governor of a state."

In addition to numerous "Perry Mason" fans who have faithfully followed the CBS show, there will be many veteran actors and actresses who will miss the show.

Gail Patrick Jackson, executive producer of the series and one of its owners, is a former motion picture star who has great loyalty to old friends.

She has always made a special point of hiring, whenever possible, some of the people she calls "old timers" — people who were acting when I was. "Some of them are semiretired and, often, well-to-do, but the acting urge remains strong.

Often such familiar motion picture faces as Conrad Nagel, Neil Hamilton, Arlene Judge, Stuart Erwin and Mae Clarke pop up in character parts.

This season the name of Ray Collins, who through the years has been playing Lt. Tragg, Perry's police antagonist, has been kept in the star billing, along with Burr, William Hopper and Barbara Hale. Collins, in all probability, will not appear in a single episode this season. He has been plagued by poor health for the last couple of years, and most often the policeman's role these days is played by Wesley Lau.

Recommended tonight: Olympic Games round-up NBC, 7:30-8:30 (EDT); "The Fugitive," ABC, 10-11 — David Janssen in a fast-moving action-adventure series.

Billy Haughton drove Quick Brown to victory in the 1955 Little Brown Jug pace and this year he scored with Vicar Hanover.

In Duke's opening football game 9-9 tie with South Carolina, the Blue Devils completed 10 passes, one less than SC.

Navy Lt. Frank Gorman of Queens Village, N. Y., led the divers after seven events with 105.99 points, followed in order by Larry Andreason of Los Alamitos, Calif., with 101.31 and Ken Sitzberger of River Forest, Ill., with 98.66. The finals will be held Wednesday.

AMERICAN ON TRIAL IN TURKEY—A guard shows U.S. farmer John Photiou, 76, into the dock at his trial on charges of "insulting the Turkish nation" in Izmir, Turkey. Photiou is from West Peabody, Mass.

Today in Washington

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—General Motors' big Delco Moraine Division plant here was idled by a strike at 10 a.m. today following a breakdown in talks on a new contract.

An estimated 3,550 employees are affected by the walkout.

Talks aimed at averting the shutdown ended at 2 a.m. after it was apparent that no agreement was in sight, a spokesman for Local 696 of the United Auto Workers said.

The 10 a.m. strike deadline had been set earlier. No new bargaining sessions have been scheduled.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two Columbus and two Hamilton County girls who disappeared over the fence of the Juvenile Diagnostic Center Saturday still are at large.

The quartet threatened a cottage supervisor, took her keys to gain access to the center grounds and climbed the fence of the Columbus institution. They are Julia Welch, 16, and Linda Coburn, 15, both of Columbus; Gertrude Harris, 17, Woodlawn (Hamilton County); and Neola McConnell, 17, Cincinnati.

OTTAWA (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II, booed by separatists in French-speaking Quebec but warmly welcomed by Ottawans, ended her eight-day visit to Canada today and left for Britain.

The queen was aboard an Air Canada jetliner, which took off at 9:18 a.m.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and a crowd of about 1,400 cheering persons turned out at the airport in the rain to bid farewell to the monarch.

Pearson said the Queen "thanked us for inviting her and said she greatly enjoyed the trip."

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP)—Mrs. Hazel Glass Dunford, 70, was watching the World Series on television Monday when she heard a strange noise across the street.

She got up to look out the window just as a tractor-trailer slammed into her home. The right front wheel crushed the chair in which she had been sitting. Authorities said a brake failure allowed the truck to coast away from a loading ramp across the street.

CARLSBAD, N.M. (AP)—Police said burglars entered the Carlsbad school system administrative offices Monday and made off with typewriters, adding machines and other office equipment valued at $1,216.

They apparently had a thirst for knowledge, too.

A copy of Webster's dictionary was taken.

NEW YORK (AP)—Aldai E. Stevenson says the late Eleanor Roosevelt was "more than relevant for our times—she was ahead of us."

Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, was among speakers Monday night at a $100-a-plate dinner honoring the memory of Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the nation's 32nd president.

The dinner was one of several across the nation to benefit the Eleanor Roosevelt Foundation for work in the fields of human rights, world peace, aid to underprivileged children and cancer research.

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says his fellow Republican, presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, "could not be held accountable" for every statement he made as a senator.

Eisenhower, speaking Monday night to 500 Republicans at a $10-a-plate dinner, said of Goldwater:

"For a long time he was a free-wheeling senator and could not be held accountable for everything he said. Today, there is nothing flip, no impulsiveness about him."

LAGOS, Nigeria, (AP)—James H. Meredith, the American Negro who broke the color barrier at the University of Mississippi, says he'll leave Nigeria if arrangements for his studies are not concluded as "honorable as they had been begun in the United States."

Meredith came to Nigeria about two months ago to study at Ibadan, reportedly on a scholarship provided by the Nigerian government. He said the scholarship was offered by officials of the Nigerian Embassy in Washington, but that the scholarship has not been made available and no government official had discussed it with him since his arrival.

Stock Prices Nudge Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market nudged irregularly higher early this afternoon in moderately active trading.

Most of the excitement was over recent speculation favoring the market while the market wheelers showed minor changes for the most part.

A slightly higher trend prevailed among airlines, aerospace issues, rails and chemicals.

Polaroid's 4-for-1 split proposal was the sensation of the day. The stock surged ahead more than 5 points, then clipped its gain to about 3.

Steels were a little lower on balance and motors were scrambled as the General Motors strike dragged on.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .3 at 329.5, a little above its record closing high of Monday. Industrials rose .4, rails .2 and utilities .20.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon off 47 at 877.10.

State To Eye Bias in Cincy

School Segregation Slated for Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Board of Education has ordered an investigation into charges of de facto segregation at a suburban Cincinnati school, opening official doors on the explosive subject for the first time without waiting to see what the courts say.

The precedent-setting action was approved by an 11-8 vote Monday night after a seven-hour meeting.

Member John F. McCormick, Deer Park, who offered the resolution, acknowledged the move was "a rather feeble start," but he added:

"It is time to think of this case from other than a legal point of view. We are charged with the caring for the welfare of all children and we have an obligation here."

The resolution grew out of charges by some of the parents of all-negro Steele Elementary School in the North College Hill District that white students in the suburb were being bused past their school to attend an all-white school, despite available space at Steele school.

The resolution asks Supt. E.E. Holt to name a state Department of Education staff member "to investigate the charges" and report back Nov. 9.

The board also approved the long-disputed state bus purchasing plan, but tabled until next month the Ohio plan for eligibility under the new federal Vocational Act.

The bus plan, approved 12-10, came after 14 months of study and debate but appeared headed for new delay.

Cincinnati attorney James L. O'Connell, representing bus builders, said his group would "file suit immediately" in Franklin County to halt the purchase plan.

The builders claim the centralized plan is restrictive to competition.

Wheelerburg Man Charged with Murder

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Arnold Floyd Watson, 24, of Wheelerburg, has been charged with first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of 51-year-old John Reaper, also of Wheelerburg. Reaper was found lying in the brush along a country road near Pedro, about 20 miles north of here, after Watson reported the shooting Sunday night to the sheriff.

Italian Scientist Wins Columbus Award

GENOA (AP)—Italian scientist Francesco Carassa has won the $1,000 prize sponsored by the City of Columbus, Ohio, in annual Columbus Day awards here Monday. Premier Aldo Moro made the presentation.

Winners of awards sponsored by the International Communications Institute were scientist William Pickering, father of National French Television Co.

High Tension Line Kills Sandusky Man

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—A 34,000-volt shock from a high tension line which was touched by a crane boom killed Alvin Ward Sr., 48, of Sandusky Monday afternoon. His death was the first at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Plum Brook plant where he was working in the salvage yard as a laborer for the Sandusky Steel & Supply Co.

Siamese cats were first imported to the United States in the 1890s.

Bike Rider Hurt More Seriously Than First Noted

A young bicycle rider, involved in a collision with a car here Saturday afternoon, was more seriously injured than first indicated.

The youngster, James Boltenhouse, 7, of 355 Barnes Ave., received immediate treatment for contusions and abrasions. According to police, he later was transferred to Children's Hospital in Columbus after it was learned his injuries were of a more serious nature.

Relatives here said internal injuries required removal of a kidney and spleen. The youngster, son of Kathleen Boltenhouse was reported in "fair" condition today at the Columbus hospital where he is under intensive care.

The auto involved was driven by Robert P. Shepard, 24, of 477 Dearborn Ave. He said he had just turned south onto Clinton St. from Ohio St. and the bike rider darted into the car before he had a chance to stop.

IT'S THE LAW!

THERE'S NO ISSUE HERE...

The State of Ohio pays seven-elevenths of a Common Pleas judge's salary. For this reason, the State has the right to call upon him for services outside his own county.

This is not custom or mere understanding. THIS IS THE LAW! Sec. 2503.04 of the Ohio Revised Code specifically empowers and directs the Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court to assign any Common Pleas Court judge to preside in a case outside his own county. Reasons may be overcrowded dockets or perhaps a local judge stepping aside.

There's absolutely nothing wrong with a Common Pleas judge's acceptance of an out-of-county assignment.

The county where he will preside pays the judge's per-day salary, travel and other expenses. That, too, is specified by Sec. 141.07 of the Ohio Revised Code. In this way, the judge's home county is not affected financially.

Pickaway County Common Pleas Judge William Ammer's philosophy, approach to and handling of cases here have attracted statewide acclaim. The Chief Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court in recent years have asked him to preside at trials and hearings in 10 other Ohio counties, ranging from the smallest (Vinton) to the largest (Cuyahoga). Many of Judge Ammer's out-of-county cases have been in Cleveland.

Judicial election campaigns are usually conducted on a high plane and candidates do not engage in confusion, misleading the voters and other types of unfairness.

But in this campaign, the opposing candidate has circulated a misleading handbill in which he tries to tell you voters that it is wrong for a Common Pleas judge to accept an assignment outside his own county.

The opposing candidate apparently does not know the law governing the activities of judges. If he did, he would not make these statements. If he is thus unfamiliar with the law, how can he hope to become a judge? For the law specifically prescribes out-of-county assignment as a duty for Common Pleas judges. Moreover, judges simply do not refuse assignments made by the Chief Justice.

Judge Ammer has chosen to bring these facts before the voters, only because the opposing candidate is trying to fabricate an issue where no issue ever existed. The opposing candidate's handbill cites figures on the amount earned by Judge Ammer during his out-of-county assignments, but THOSE FIGURES ARE DOUBLE THE TRUE AMOUNTS, because they include travel and other actual expenses. This is another example of the opposing candidate's misleading tactics.

The opposing candidate talks about judicial reform if he's elected. But he does not tell you what that is. It is merely an empty promise tossed in to mislead you.

The opposing candidate claims he's experienced. How? He's never served as Common Pleas Court judge.

Judge Ammer has never taken an out-of-county assignment that would conflict with the handling of local cases.

The Pickaway County Common Pleas Court docket is up-to-date and is in the best shape in history. This is because of Judge Ammer's system of speedup, which now makes possible the hearing of a case within three months if all parties cooperate.

Ask your lawyer. Attorneys of Pickaway County have always seemed satisfied with Judge Ammer's handling of the Common Pleas Court. The Bar Association unanimously recommended Judge Ammer for appointment to the bench in 1957 and in 1958 went on record as recommending his election to a first term.

In most Ohio counties, at election time, the bar associations poll their memberships on preferences for judicial positions. This was scheduled here in Pickaway County at a recent meeting of the bar.

However, the poll here was not conducted because the opposing candidate refused his consent. Why?? Perhaps it was because he feared the results.

An unofficial pre-poll sampling showed the attorneys of Pickaway County overwhelmingly favor Judge Ammer to continue in the job.

Remember, when you go to the polls on Nov. 3, you will be handed a separate NON-PARTISAN JUDICIAL BALLOT. Vote for Judge Ammer. This will assure continued efficient, impartial and experienced handling of Common Pleas Court cases.
